TRINITARIAN UNFATHOMABLE LOVE

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast is rather unique in that it honors a doctrine rather than an event. What we are commemorating today is a central reality of our Christian faith, that God is Trinitarian in nature - three distinct persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in one God.

The Church calls this truth a mystery, as indeed it is. It is not a mystery in the sense that it is a question that must be answered but rather in the sense that the depths of this truth are far beyond our human comprehension. Some have said that "mystery" in this context is "not a wall to run up against but an ocean in which to swim."

Contemplating the "ocean depths" of this mystery can make us humans feel so small, and almighty God so far from us. Yet nothing could be further from the truth.

Proverbs, says that God "found delight in the human race." The greatness of God in no way puts Him at a distance from us. In fact, one of the facets of the Trinitarian nature that we can understand is that God is, by nature, relational. So, it makes sense that He would delight in being in relationship with us whom He made in His own image and likeness.

St. Paul reminds us that not only does God delight in us, but He is intimately connected to us. "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." Not only does God permit us to draw near to Him, He wants to live in the very depths of our being and in all the intimate details of our lives if we will let Him.

Finally, we learn that God holds back nothing of Himself from us. Jesus tells His disciples (this includes us!) that the Holy Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything the Father has is mine." Thus, we find ourselves drawn right into the midst of this Trinitarian love. In fact, if the mystery of Holy Trinity is an ocean which to swim, the "water" that makes up that ocean is love.

What then should our response be to this sublime mystery? All we can do is worship. And offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love. This week let's re-invite God into the midst of our lives and make sure the way we spend our time and energy each day shows Him our profound gratitude for His many gifts to us, but above all the gift of Himself in the Trinity - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

HOLY TRINITY PRAYER

Glory be to the Father,

Who by His almighty power and love created me,
making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,

Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,

Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me
by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity,
now and forever. Amen.

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER FOR FATHERS

Heavenly Father, today we honor all dads for the irreplaceable role they have in leading their families
with strength and integrity.

We exalt the noble calling of fatherhood that You ordained
and have entrusted to these remarkable men.
Thank You for how fathers nurture us,
provide for us, instruct us and model what it means to follow Christ wholeheartedly.

For those striving to lovingly and sacrificially
raise their children according to Your ways,
we honor them and ask for Your abundant favor.
Replenish them with fresh vision, strength,
grace and wisdom.

May their labors never be in vain
but yield an incredible spiritual legacy.
